

Kevin GILLANDERS

Kevin is a financial services leader with a passion for building prosperous communities. His current role involves working directly with all types of businesses and their owners to serve as a go-to financial partner. With several years of experiences working across BC and in Toronto, Kevin is thrilled to now be living in Nanaimo and enjoying all of the outdoor excursions around Vancouver Island.