

COVID-19 Information and Resources

In response to the current COVID-19 situation in our community and recommendations from the Provincial Health Authority, The Nanaimo Child Development Centre is currently closed to the public. We have also suspended home visits. Alternate access to our services is currently being explored. A member of your team will be in touch with you as soon as possible to discuss service options.

Follow our official NCDC Facebook page for further updates and resources.

Symptoms & Testing

Anyone who is concerned that they may have been exposed to, or is experiencing symptoms of COVID-19, should phone their health-care provider, or call 8-1-1.

Testing is recommended for people with respiratory symptoms who have travelled outside of Canada. You can use the BC COVID Self-Assessment Tool to determine if you need further assessment or testing.
