2A-001......BACKGROUND

PURPOSE:

Overview of volunteer program within the Nanaimo Child Development Centre.

Background:

Volunteers have been involved in almost every area of activity since the Nanaimo Child Development Centre’s inception in 1967. Traditionally the Nanaimo Child Development Centre has attracted people with a range of backgrounds and skills and a shared commitment to Nanaimo’s children with special needs.

The Nanaimo Child Development Centre’s volunteer program brings substantial benefit to:

- Our volunteers by providing them with an opportunity for direct involvement in the day to day running of the Nanaimo Child Development Centre.
- Our organization by bringing specialist advice and skills into the organization and through the provision of additional human resources to particular programs;

The contribution of volunteers is vital to the Nanaimo Child Development Centre’s operations. The Nanaimo Child Development Centre recognizes and values the relationship between the organization and volunteer and is committed to providing a volunteer program which both:

- Supports the Nanaimo Child Development Centre’s work; and
- Meets the expectations and needs of individual volunteers.
2A-002......GENERAL PRINCIPLES

PURPOSE:

To outline the principles of volunteering.

POLICY

The Nanaimo Child Development Centre values the contribution made by volunteers and seeks to recognize that by adhering to the principles of volunteering.

2A-003.......PHILOSOPHY

PURPOSE

The Nanaimo Child Development Centre values the contribution made by volunteers.

POLICY

The Nanaimo Child Development Centre values the contribution made by volunteers and seeks to recognize that contribution.
PURPOSE

To detail the purpose of the volunteer program.

POLICY

The purpose of the volunteer program within the Nanaimo Child Development Centre is:

- Recruit and maintain a committed group of volunteers who assist the work of the Nanaimo Child Development Centre;

- Attempt to provide volunteers with the level of responsibilities and involvement that meet their expectations; and

- Help the Nanaimo Child Development Centre achieve its goals.
2A-005R1....RECRUITMENT

PURPOSE

To detail the recruitment procedure for volunteers.

POLICY

Our recruitment policy is driven by our purpose, which is to fulfill the needs of our organization and the expectations of our volunteers.

The Nanaimo Child Development Centre applies the principles of equal opportunity to its recruitment processes and will not withhold a volunteer appointment on the basis of race, religion, sexual orientation, gender, disability, ancestry, age or by reasons of membership or activity in a union.

2A-006R1....POSITION DESCRIPTIONS

PURPOSE

Nanaimo Child Development Centre Volunteer Coordinator will meet with prospective volunteers to determine their particular skills, interest and expectations and how they might complement the Nanaimo Child Development Centre’s needs.

POLICY

Our policy is to meet with prospective volunteers to determine their particular skills, interests and expectations. In the process we are also assessing how they might complement the Nanaimo Child Development Centre’s needs. If there is a match, volunteers are assigned to a staff member who then becomes responsible for the volunteer’s day-to-day supervision. Prospective volunteers will interview with the applicable department staff.

All staff must fill out a Volunteer Request form before a volunteer can be assigned to them.

2A-003……..PHILOSOPHY

PURPOSE

The Nanaimo Child Development Centre values the contribution made by volunteers and recognizes that contribution.

PRACTICE

- Acknowledging that the relationship between volunteers and the Nanaimo Child Development Centre is a reciprocal one;
- Acknowledging that volunteers exercise free choice in committing to the Nanaimo Child Development Centre;
- Acknowledging that volunteers are of equal status and deserve the same treatment and respect as paid employees, and that Nanaimo Child Development Centre can expect the same standards of its volunteers as it expects of its paid employees;
- Ensuring volunteers are not used to replace paid staff positions and only carry out work that they have agreed to;
- Stating and acknowledging the contributions of volunteers in the Nanaimo Child Development Centre documentation and recording hours worked;
- Providing an opportunity for the development of skills and experience; and
- Providing support in the form of clear policy guidelines, training, recognition and support, and the provision of references if required.
PURPOSE

To detail the purpose of the volunteer program.

PRACTICE

The purpose of the volunteer program within the Nanaimo Child Development Centre is:

- Recruit and maintain a committed group of volunteers who assist the work of the Nanaimo Child Development Centre;

- Attempt to provide volunteers with the level of responsibilities and involvement that meet their expectations; and

- Help the Nanaimo Child Development Centre achieve its goals.
2A-005R1….RECRUITMENT

PURPOSE

To detail the recruitment procedure for volunteers.

Our recruitment policy is driven by our purpose, which is to fulfill the needs of our organization and the expectations of our volunteers.

The Nanaimo Child Development Centre applies the principles of equal opportunity to its recruitment processes and will not withhold a volunteer appointment on the basis of race, religion, sexual orientation, gender, disability, ancestry, age or by reasons of membership or activity in a union.

PRACTICE

1. All prospective volunteers are to be interviewed by the Volunteer Coordinator prior to placement. The area of work and level of involvement will be arranged on an individual basis at time of interview.

2. Prospective volunteers are matched for their suitability to existing position descriptions. The selection criterion for each position depends upon the particular skills needed to fulfill the duties of that position. Commitment to the goals, values, policies and procedures of the Nanaimo Child Development Centre will be looked upon favorably as will the ability to work as part of the team and the acceptance of the relevant roles and responsibilities.

Refer to Personnel Policy 2.23 Hiring

2A-010......PLACEMENT

PURPOSE

Placement of the volunteer within the Nanaimo Child Development Centre will take place as follows.

PRACTICE

1. Once the volunteer has chosen their preferred available voluntary position and the Volunteer Coordinator agrees that it is a good choice for their skills and experience, a meeting is arranged for the volunteer to talk directly with the staff supervisor for that position.

2. The purpose of this meeting is for the supervisor to determine whether the volunteer will be suitable for the position and for the volunteer to determine if they would like to take on the position offered.

3. If both the supervisor and the volunteer then wish to proceed with this particular position, the volunteer coordinator is to be informed and an induction process to be carried out.

4. Staff may complete a Volunteer Request Form and present to the Volunteer Coordinator for placement at any time.
2A-011R1....INDUCTION

PURPOSE

The volunteer will be oriented to their position within the Nanaimo Child Development Centre in the following manner:

PRACTICE

Once a volunteer has been placed in the position the volunteer’s rights and responsibilities will be discussed with them and they are to be given:

- A copy of their job description if available
- An opportunity to read / review the policy and procedures manual
- Information sheets/Newsletter as necessary
- A membership form (if not already a member)
- Orientation Checklist

Volunteers are to then be given a tour of the Nanaimo Child Development Centre’s offices and introduced to all available members of staff. Staff to be informed of the volunteer’s duties and whom they will be working with. The tour to include:

- Reception desk, including volunteer sign-in book,
- Safety Guide and emergency procedures;
- Break room and tea/coffee making facilities, use of dishwasher; refrigerator
- Photocopiers; and
- Washroom areas.

Policy Number: 2A-012

2A-012......PROBATION / PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

PURPOSE

All voluntary appointments are to be appraised after one month and then again at three months and have a yearly performance evaluation.

PRACTICE

All voluntary appointments are to be appraised after one month and then again at three months. If either the volunteer or the supervisor believe that the appointment is not working, either a new position may be found or the volunteer may be asked to wait until a suitable new position comes available.

All voluntary appointments will have a yearly performance evaluation. This will be done in conjunction with the supervisor and the Volunteer Coordinator.
2A-013…….TRAINING

PURPOSE

Adequate training will be provided to all volunteers within the Nanaimo Child Development Centre.

PRACTICE

1. Supervisors are expected to provide adequate training to enable their volunteers to carry out their duties. The supervisors are responsible for their volunteers while they are learning to use the Nanaimo Child Development Centre equipment and must make themselves available to help when needed.

2. Volunteers are to be encouraged to develop and expand their personal skills to maintain and enhance the Nanaimo Child Development Centre’s effectiveness.

3. Volunteers who are working directly with children at the Centre are required to meet with program staff to review the Guidance and Discipline policy prior to placement.

Refer to Programming Policy #4.26 Positive Intervention Training and Restrictive Intervention

2A-014R1….RIGHTS and RESPONSIBILITIES

PURPOSE

Detail the rights and responsibilities of the volunteers within the Nanaimo Child Development Centre as follows:

PRACTICE

VOLUNTEER RIGHTS:

- Receive adequate information and a clear job description of what is expected and to understand why they are doing a task and how it fits into the broader program;
- Be assigned a suitable project, task or job and to say no to tasks they are unable to do, or would rather not do and to ask for a new job;
- To have on the job supervision provided by a designated staff member;
- Receive respect and support from their co-workers as well as recognition and feedback from their supervisor for their work;
- Be reimbursed for out of pocket expenses, providing prior approval is obtained with the supervisor;
- Be briefed on the broader aspects of the Nanaimo Child Development Centre and discuss with their supervisor whether the Nanaimo Child Development Centre is suited to them or whether they are suited to the Nanaimo Child Development Centre;
- Request a reference from their supervisor when applying for a job, providing the volunteer has worked at the Nanaimo Child Development Centre for a minimum period of three months;
- Provide feedback, suggestions and recommendations regarding their job or the wider program;
- Have access to dispute resolution procedures and to be supported through such a process;
- Have their personal details kept in a confidential manner; and
- Work in a safe and healthy environment.
VOLUNTEER RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Inform the Nanaimo Child Development Centre of any pre-existing medical conditions or special needs that the Nanaimo Child Development Centre should be aware of that might affect the volunteer’s ability to undertake certain tasks;

- Agree to work in a safe and healthy way and not jeopardize the health and safety of others;

- Be reliable and commit, where possible, to regular day(s) and time of work so tasks can be planned accordingly;

- Notify their supervisor and the Volunteer Coordinator if they cannot make their shift as soon as possible. Failure to do so may terminate the volunteer position;

- Keep the Nanaimo Child Development Centre informed of changes of address and phone numbers;

- Abide by any Nanaimo Child Development Centre policies regarding their volunteer work;

- Appreciate and respect the confidential nature of information that may be acquired during course of duties;

- Show enthusiasm, loyalty and belief in the work of the organization;

- Report any injury immediately to their supervisor;

- Be responsible to and consult with their supervisor;

- To ask for support when needed;

- Agree to do job training necessary to carry out duties as stated in Position Description;

- Not to spend money or order goods on behalf of the Nanaimo Child Development Centre without prior approval; and

- Discuss any grievances of problems with their supervisor. If they remain unresolved speak with the Volunteer Coordinator.

2A-015R1….COMMITMENT TO VOLUNTEERS

PURPOSE

All Nanaimo Child Development Centre staff will treat volunteers with respect and support.

PRACTICE

The Nanaimo Child Development Centre recognizes that volunteers contribute a vast wealth of skills, knowledge and support towards the running of the Nanaimo Child Development Centre. All Nanaimo Child Development Centre staff in return shall treat volunteers with respect and support. Staff is accountable for volunteers under their supervision and must be present while volunteers are in the building. No volunteer should ever be in the Nanaimo Child Development Centre building unsupervised.
2A-016.....RECOGNITION OF VOLUNTEERS

PURPOSE

Volunteers will be recognized for their services to the Nanaimo Child Development Centre.

PRACTICE

1. Volunteers are to be included, where possible, in all relevant staff meetings, discussions and celebrations.

2. Volunteers should be given every opportunity to develop their skills.

3. Long term volunteers (those who have provided regular voluntary assistance for more than six months) are to be included in staff functions and training whenever possible.
